

INTRODUCTION

Scientific studies confirm that fidelity in a relationship was recognized as one of the most important features of our "other half". So, one of the most hurtful things that can happen to us while being in a relationship with another person is his or her infidelity. The present times vary considerably from the days of our parents. Our times are dripping with nudity and sex which pours out on us from TV screens and computers. You can see it in the commercials, music videos, newspapers. All this affects male-female relationships. Each betrayal is a drama, a drama of a person who discovers, mostly by a chance, that for so many years he or she has been lied to and cheated on. In the long-standing relationships we get used to our "other half", and the heat of desire inflamed long ago slowly begins to fade... Until it is going to be burst again, unfortunately, by somebody else. The fight of the reason with your heart begins. The reason tells us that after all you know each other „for so many years”, „you have children”, while the heart says quite something else. In this guide I discussed thoroughly and in details the reasons for which the women cheat on. I have presented in here the genesis of a betrayal, where it comes from, what it results from, and what it consists of. So that the reader can easily see the mistakes he made as well as the ones he cannot make in order not to be betrayed. Later in the book, I will discuss the 10 factors that favour the betrayal, and how to recognize that your woman does not love you anymore, and then you will know that you whether you are cheated on or not. This book describes carefully the most characteristic signals and ways of woman's behaviour, which prove that the woman can have someone. Then I am going to explain how 99% of women are cheating on their men, what they are doing and who offers them help so nobody will know the truth. At the very end of the book I will focus on how your life should look after the betrayal, what to do when you want to forgive and what to do when you want to live.

The book is for the people who are currently in a relationship and suspect their women of infidelity, as well as for those which are not in relationship, or create a happy relationship, so they will know for the future how to recognize a betrayal, to react in time and perhaps even save the relationship. The book is for those who are in a normal relationship and for those who are married. Undoubtedly, males and females differ very much from each other, including the issue of infidelity. Women behave differently and cheat on for other reasons than men. Everything has been written on the basis of my own experience and the observations of my own relationships, as well as the ones of my friends.

THE REASONS FOR WHICH THE WOMEN CHEAT ON

As I mentioned in the introduction the women cheat on differently to the men. In order to become unfaithful to her man or a husband, a woman needs to leave him emotionally. The women, firstly, leave emotionally and then physically by breaking up with him. It happens that before she definitively goes away a lot of time will pass. One of my ex-girlfriends said the following words when she was leaving „But I left you over a year ago”. As she said, during that year our relationship was slowly hitting the bottom line. All signs on Heaven and Earth that something wrong is going on but I underestimated them.

When a woman walks away emotionally from a man she is up to making new friends”. It is easy to recognize such a woman in a shop, on a street, at the party, or at work. Ironically, it is easy to recognize a woman who has somebody from the woman who is single. If she is in love with her man, it is very hard to get to her, and what to say about establishing any closer relation. When a woman walks away emotionally, it may take a very long time, even a few years before she finally leaves the guy. Perhaps she will never leave him, but she will cheat on him regularly. Before she leave him for somebody else, she will make sure that the new guy will fulfill her needs. The woman will have to make a few, even more than a dozen meetings with a potentially new man, to make sure that she can decide on the final step, which is the definite break-up with her present lover. It's just like with the work which no longer gives you so much fun as it used to, over time, you'll want to change it for a better job, more profitable, giving more satisfaction and emotions. However you won't quit your job unless you find another one, after all, the bills do no pay themselves. You will be searching until you find it. You will be browsing through different offers and proposals, but before you decide on a change you will need to be 100% sure. The same is with the women, they can be stuck in toxic relationships for many years before they finally decide to leave. Nevertheless, before they do it, it is very likely, that they will cheat on their present partners many times. When a woman walks away emotionally from a man she does it mostly because she's lacking something. The betrayal is often very precisely planned from A to Z. The woman does it very discretely and sometimes one has to hire a private investigator to catch her red-handed. While the men cheat on basing on „the impulse” and they aren't so discreet as the women. It is very easy to work them out and this is what differs us from women. Women give away as often as men do it if they have a reason for that, but they are very discreet and careful in this, so that their partner will not even know this, neither he will suspect that the love of their life allowed herself for a fling or for a long love affair with another man.

The woman that cheated on her man must have some reasons for that. So she must be unsatisfied on: emotional, sexual, and financial grounds. The problems hidden inside each of these elements are pushing women into the arms of another man. Even though sometimes couples make terrible mistakes they tend to think that when they get married or have a baby „everything is going to change for the better”. However, in the real world it is not possible. Nowadays, the marriage is a brittle institution. A very large number of marriages is settled as the woman moved away emotionally from a man, such a marriage lasts very briefly. When a marriage takes a longer time then the husband and the wife live together like cats and dogs, and they are only with each other because of the children, or „what will people say” and „what the family will say”. In a such an unhappy relationship or a marriage it is very easy for a back-door affair .
